ANDRE M. HENRY

Field Inspector

Project Role: Project Manager/Quality Control Inspector

Andre Henry has been in the roofing industry for over eighteen (18) years. His experience began as a laborer and continued on to mechanic and then project foreman for several roofing contractors in the Commonwealth of Virginia. He has installed and repaired all types of low and steep slope roofing and has been involved with new constructions, roof maintenance and roof system replacements on most types of commercial roofing systems. He has also performed visual condition evaluations, assisted with field evaluations for roof replacement design and provided full time quality control inspection services for numerous projects.

Mr. Henry applies his knowledge of numerous roof systems and application requirements to reflect RCS standards throughout all projects. His thorough knowledge of roofing systems application requirements and proven ability to assist in coordination of projects will prove beneficial for the overall quality of any roofing project.
