HENRY "PAUL" GEORGE

Field Technician, Project Inspector
Project Role: Senior Field Technician

Paul George is a very instrumental resource for Roof Consulting Services. His experience in roofing extends thirty plus years which has allowed him to accumulate a vast knowledge of commercial roofing practices. This working knowledge has assisted him in projects with RCS. Mr. George has held a number of positions in the roofing industry starting as a laborer and working his way up to a site supervisor and inspector.

Mr. George has performed design evaluations, nuclear and infrared moisture surveys, visual condition evaluations, and has provided quality control inspection services for multiple projects.

He is a qualified roof specialist that can provide outstanding customer service on all projects. His knowledge and experience allows for excellent performance on every inspection type.
