WILLIAM BEASLEY

Project Manager

Project Role: Project Manager / Quality Control Inspector

Mr. Beasley has been in the roofing and construction industry for over thirty one (31) years. He has been involved in countless total roof replacement projects, roof system repair projects and new construction projects. He started his career as a laborer and worked his way up to mechanic, project foreman and project superintendent. Over the course of his long career, Mr. Beasley has worked for several large and respected companies located throughout North Carolina and Virginia. Mr. Beasley also ran his own residential roofing and siding business for 12 years prior to joining RCS as a full time employee.

Mr. Beasley has a proven work ethic and a magnitude of experience in roofing projects that he has obtained over the past 28 plus years. His involvement in any roofing project whether it's a large complex project involving multiple roof areas and roof system types or a simple / small project will prove to be beneficial during the course of the project and ensure that the best quality roof system is installed.

Since joining RCS in 2008, Mr. Beasley has performed project management and quality control inspection services on several large / high profile projects. He has also performed comprehensive condition evaluations on numerous projects and assisted other RCS personnel with gathering as-built information on projects being designed by RCS for total roof system replacements.
